Seareity of Rain Along Seaboard May Herr Crops.

[Special to the Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., September 21.—The dry spell is now on, not a drop of rain laving fallen since the 6th. It is causing great apprehension among truckers, who see serious damage ahead to late crops unless conditions improve. While no material damage has been reported, crops throughout the Tidewater are showing the need of rain.

Great Bill at Colonial.

The success established by the present vaudeville bill at the Colonial surpasses the record established by the excellent bills that preceded it for the two weeks past. Nothing like the allaround excellence displayed by Harry W. Fields and his Redpath Napanees has ever been seen here. This act alone has firmly established the Colonial in the popularity of Richmond's cilizens. Surrounding them, Emil Hoch & Co., Fred Ray & Co., Gavin, Platt and Peaches, Ed. Gray, Van Camp and Buch Brothers, make up a bill just suited to the tastes of the increasing number of vaudeville lovers.

To See Others Play.

Members of "The Merry Widow" Company accepted an invitation extended by Manager Lyon, of the Colonial, last night to attend the matinee this afternoon. Miss Rosemary Glasz and all of them will occupy boxes.

. Didn't Know It Was Londed. Join Jefferson, colored, who was arrested Wednesday night by Officer Wiley, charged with having cocaine in his pocket, appeared before Justice Crutchfield yesterday, and was sent on to the October term of the grand jury. Jefferson declared he did not know that the stuff was in his pocket, and "reckoned somebody put it there."
